

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Hawai'i's tradition of harmony and cooperation among its diverse population provides a natural foundation for increasing efficiency in the workplace, government and our daily lives; and

WHEREAS, efficiency is the ability to accomplish a job with minimum expenditure of time and effort and to use available resources at the least cost; and

WHEREAS, the people of Hawai'i are encouraged to work together to conserve resources and reduce wasteful practices in the workplace by thinking and acting efficiently at all times; and

WHEREAS, Government Efficiency Teams, Inc. was founded in 1987 and has established an admirable record of working with local governments to promote more efficient operations; and

WHEREAS, the State of Hawai'i is proud to join with the Government Efficiency Teams, Inc. (GET) to promote efficiency in Hawai'i; and

WHEREAS, on February 9, 2006, as part of GET Efficient Hawai'i Week activities, Government Efficiency Teams, Inc., is sponsoring an educational forum at the Hawai'i State Capitol Auditorium,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LINDA LINGLE, Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim February 5 through 11, 2006, as in Hawai'i, and urge all citizens to work well together to build a better and more efficient state.

Done at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this twenty-third day of January 2006.

Linda Lingle
Governor, State of Hawai'i
